

SUMMARY OF 2006/7 BAFS WINTER PROGRAMME

The Coull Quartet

Saturday, 28th October 2006

The Coull Quartet performs internationally and is one of Britain's most respected and longest-established ensembles.

They performed Mozart's Quartet in D K499 "Hoffmeister", Elgar's Quartet in E minor Op 83, and Quartet No 1 in D Op 11 by Tchaikovsky.

The Humour of Hoffnung

Saturday, 2nd December 2006

Gerard Hoffnung's widow, Annetta, gave a talk with slides, recordings and films to promote and champion the work of the famous comedian.

Chiao-Ying Chang

Saturday, 3rd February 2007

Lady pianist, who gives recitals and concerto performances in the UK and abroad, prizewinner at Leeds and Taiwan International competitions.

She played Bach's Italian Concerto, Schubert's Impromptus, Ravel and - a highlight of the recital - Liszt's sonata in B minor.

Basso Bravura

Saturday, 10th March 2007

David Heyes, double bass, Sarah Poole, soprano, and Mark Cracknell, piano

The programme included famous arias by Bellini, Rossini and Gounod, as well as virtuosic pieces by Bottesini and Massenet for double bass.