JONATHAN PLOWRIGHT, piano

SATURDAY 9th OCTOBER 2010, 7.30pm

CHOPIN: Fantasie, Op 49; Berceuse, Op 57; Barcarolle, Op 60;

Two Nocturnes, in B Op 9 no 3, and C sharp minor Op posth.

BUSONI: Ten Variations on a Prelude of Chopin in C minor

PADEREWSKI: Series de Morceaux, Op 16

CHOPIN: Scherzo No. 2 in B flat minor, Op 31

Jonathan Plowright, hailed by 'Gramophone' as 'one of the finest living pianists', has built up a great reputation here and overseas for his championing of unjustly neglected repertoire as well as the mainstream. Earlier this year his 'Hommage a Chopin' recording for Hyperion attracted unanimous praise, including the prestigious Preis der Deutschen Schallplattenkritik, Gramophone Editor's Choice, Diapason d'Or and CD of the week on ClassicFM. He celebrates with us this year's anniversaries of Chopin and Paderewski in a virtuosic and poetic all-Polish programme.

JOGLARESA

SATURDAY 13th NOVEMBER 2010, 7.30 pm
A Medieval Garden of Delights

Combining outstanding international performers from the spheres of medieval, world music and jazz, UK-based band Joglearesa, under their director Belinda Sykes, has a sound that is at once traditional and contemporary. There is nothing airy-fairy or solemn in their music-making; Joglearesa's boldness and improvisatory chutzpah gets straight to the heart of medieval music. Prepare to be astonished and delighted as you are taken on a journey back in time.

AURORA ENSEMBLE

SATURDAY 5th FEBRUARY 2011, 7.30pm

HERZOGENBERG: Wind Quintet in E flat, Op 43

MENDELSSOHN: Concert Piece No 2 in D minor, Op 114

VON EINEM: Serenade: 'About the Rat, the Beaver and the Bear', Op 84

MOZART: Quintet for piano and wind instruments in E flat, K452

Prizewinners at the Musique d'Ensemble competition at the Paris Conservatoire in 2001, the Aurora Ensemble has performed in such venues as the Wigmore Hall, Purcell Room, Bridgewater Hall, St David's Hall and at the Warwick, Thaxted, Ryedale and Petworth Festivals. They come to us tonight as a wind quartet of oboe, clarinet, bassoon and horn with additional piano, which enables them to programme two major piano quintets, with two delightful trios as contrast.

NAVARRA QUARTET

SATURDAY 12th MARCH, 2011, 7.30pm

HAYDN: String Quartet in C, Op 54 no 2
SHOSTAKOVICH: String Quartet No. 6 in G, Op 101
BEETHOVEN: String Quartet No. 15 in A minor, Op 132

The Navarra Quartet, a young multi-prize-winning group which has attracted enormous critical acclaim since its foundation in 2002, presents masterpieces from three different centuries. One of Haydn's most visionary and innovative quartets precedes Shostakovich in typically combative and impassioned mode, while Beethoven's late A minor work is one of the sublime summits of the chamber music repertoire; a performance of it by such outstanding musicians promises to be a very special event.
